

MENTAL HEALTH CONSIDERATIONS

Effective Education Strategies for All Students

This presentation explores the necessary resources needed in order to effectively integrate instruction while considering Mental Health challenges. The importance of support services and self-care for students and staff make up the basis for this ground-breaking presentation. Researched-driven and experience-based strategies are shared in order to support educators.