

This module explores the dangers of conduct that is inappropriate for schools or any educational environment. This presentation will define sexual misconduct, separating the facts from myths and informs educators about the importance of perception. James 1 seeks to encourage responsible and appropriate relationship building among teachers & students as well as colleagues.